

Rebecca Bonilla -- Lower School Spanish

Rebecca Bonilla will teach Lower School Spanish this year. She is an alumni parent (Edward '08 and Eric Collazo (T) '13), who taught Spanish at TCS when her boys were small, from 2002 to 2007. Ms. Bonilla was born in the U.S. and raised in Puerto Rico, where she earned a bachelor's degree in tourism from Sacred Heart University in San Juan. After moving back to the States, she earned a master's degree in business at Washburn University and later, a Pre-K-12 teaching certificate for Spanish, also from Washburn.

Ms. Bonilla served as a Bilingual Parent Educator for the Washburn Rural School District's Parents as Teachers Program for five years. She was a student teacher in the Shawnee Heights district, and has worked as a substitute teacher in the Auburn Washburn School District.

