

GENIUS HOUR SHOWCASE MAY 19, 2021

Meredith B.

For my Genius Hour project, I am making a neoclassical dress out of an old thrifted wedding dress. This involves cutting, altering and color-dying the dress.

Brett R. and Josie L.

For this year's project, we are baking different types of bread. We chose a variety of recipes to represent different countries and cultures.

Lauren B.

I have been giving kindergartener dance lessons via Zoom for my genius hour project. Throughout my project I have been sharing tips on how to do specific moves, teaching competition dances, and help get better at moves she already knows. For the Genius Hour Showcase, I will be creating a slideshow with my notes from our past lessons.

Holly S.

For Genius Hour I painted 25 keys. I used spray paint and acrylics to make the beautiful colorful keys. These will be on display at the showcase.

Rachael N.

For Genius Hour I did research on the Russian language. I spent time learning the Cyrillic alphabet and some common words and phrases, as well as some quotes from movies just for fun.

Aditi N.

For my Genius Hour project, I am researching music theory by listening to and taking apart different kinds of traditional music throughout the world to find their similarities and differences. I will then be composing a piece of piano music that links together these similarities.

Wyatt H.

I am building a Rube Goldberg machine. You can come see it at the Genius Hour fair.

Rami A.

My Genius Hour project is making my own game board. I will indulge in research in Board Games and research different types of games. I will choose a style, decide on a design, and gather resources and supplies to make it. I can safely say that I will NOT be able to complete it by the end of the year, it is something that I would have to complete in my free time during the Summer.

Logan H.

My Genius Hour project is creating a small business on Etsy. I am creating paint and different artworks.

Ellen A.

For my Genius Hour project I did acrylic pour paint. I did about six abstract paintings.

Marissa B, Anisha D, and Sasha G.

This year, for our Genius Hour project, we're writing a manga. This is a Japanese form of graphic novel or comic.

Ella F. and Aliyah G.

For our Genius Hour project we are raising money for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. We have raised over $1,000 and plan to continue raising money. We chose this because we want to help out kids our age that are sick.

Taryn G.

For my Genius Hour project, I baked different recipes to see which ones were the best. I did this because I enjoy baking and wanted to try some new recipes.

Ava H. and Stella K.

For our Genius Hour project, we are writing cards to a nursing home. We chose this because we wanted to bring joy to people during this rough time.

Drake G.

For my Genius Hour project, I am going to do the best and the worst chess openings and how to defend them. I will show what not to do, and I will provide what the name of the play is called, like Queens Gambit, etc.

Tatum G.

My project for Genius Hour is a summary of some short stories in the book 1408 by Stephan King. Lately, I've been meaning to read a lot more Stephan King books, so 1408 is a good start. I also love the book because of its twists and suspense.

Isabelle K.

My Genius Hour project is about all 32 NFL teams and their history. My project has information about every team and their history. It also has their team logo on each slide. Every team has a slide with information about the team.

Harrison R.

For my Genius Hour project, I am making a diorama for a scene that appears in the book Animal Farm. We are reading Animal Farm in our language arts class.

Lucas W.

I am learning how to play the accordion. I have been playing for a little over four months. I can play about 20 songs, and I know the keys and buttons enough that I can play by ear with relative ease.
