

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Summer Blast? How is it different than Topeka Collegiate's Summer Adventures programming in the past?

For over twenty years, Topeka Collegiate has hosted a safe and popular summer program called "Summer Adventures." This year, we have revamped this program to meet the needs of today's families. Summer Blast provides a full-day summer camp solution that is less about the exact topic of focus but more about safe, dependable fun that is built for children. Each week's theme will be designed with kids in mind and include games, arts, crafts, music, free play time, creativity, exploration, and physical activity.

What are the hours of Summer Blast?

Blast time is 9:00 AM-3:30 PM Monday-Friday. For an added convenience and $25 fee per week fee, parents may take advantage of beforecare, starting at 7:30 AM, or aftercare, ending at 5:00 PM.

When is the first week of camp?

The first week of camp is June 6, 2022. You may choose to enroll week-by-week, or for the entire summer. Summer Blast will last for seven weeks concluding on Friday, July 29. There is no offering July 4-8.

Does my child have to attend Topeka Collegiate to join Summer Blast?

No, your child does not have to attend Topeka Collegiate to enroll in Summer Blast, however Topeka Collegiate students will be able to have an early registration option on March 1 and 2. Summer Blast welcomes students from across the region.

What are the age limits of Summer Blast?

Camps are designed for children who have completed kindergarten; serving first through eighth grade students.
